Grand Council of the Kentucky Jurisdiction Meets Next Week.

Notable Gathering of Catholic Young Men Tomorrow at Frankfort.

Reports Will Show That All Councils Have Made Progress.

INTEREST IN ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

The annual convention of the Grand Council of the Young Men's Institute of the Kentucky Jurisdiction will open at Frankfort tomorrow with the meeting of the Board of Grand Directors. Monday morning the Grand officers, delegates and visitors will march to the Church of the Good Shepherd, where a high mass will be sung by the pastor, the Rev. Thomas Major, after which the convention will be called to order in the handsome hall of Lambert Young Council by Grand President Reardon. There will be morning and afternoon sessions and the business of the convention will be concluded on Tuesday. The gathering will be a notable one and will be representative of the Catholic Young Men of Kentucky, Tennessee and Missouri, the three States included in the jurisdiction.

DR. JOSEPH REARDON.
President of the Grand Council.

Arrangements have been made for the entertainment and comfort of all who attend. The three councils of Louisville have arranged for a special train over the Louisville & Nashville that will leave at 8:45 and arrive in Frankfort at 11:30. The afternoon and evening will be given over to receptions, trolley rides and visits to points of interest. Santo Council, of Owensboro, will send a large delegation, which will join the Louisville crowd, as will also the new New Haven and Lebanon, Lexington, Newport, Covington and Bellevue will be well represented, and the members from those cities will come by special trains.

The Young Men's Institute was never before so strong numerically as at present. Reports submitted to the Grand officers show the different councils have overflowing treasuries and all are increasing in membership. Particularly is this the case here in Louisville, where a great interest in the order has been awakened. During the past year Trinity Council, under the able leadership of President Martin, has forged to the front and now leads the jurisdiction with a membership reaching toward 500. In addition to this satisfactory advancement being made by the new $18,000 club house, the foundation for which was laid and paid for last fall. Next comes Mackin Council, which hopes to soon pass its rival in the East End. Barry Council, of Lexington, maintains the strong position it always held, and Santo, of Owensboro, and Chickasaw, of Memphis, show remarkable gains as compared with former years. The other councils have kept in line with the progress made, and now the Kentucky jurisdiction is one of the most important factors between Pennsylvania and California. Kentucky responded nobly to the San Francisco appeal for relief, and the aggregate sum forwarded will be announced at the convention.

In few fraternal societies is there so much interest taken in the election of officers as in the Y. M. I. Its membership includes men who are natural politicians and who always put up a vigorous fight for their respective candidates. This year the contest for the Grand Presidency seems to lie between Grand Vice President Albert F. Martin and John J. Crotty, both of Louisville. Each possesses ability of a high order and would make a splendid executive head, but it now looks that the former will be a winner. The next office of greatest importance is that of Grand Secretary, and for this the aspirants are Edwin Dawson, the present incumbent, and Capt. Lutkemeier, of Frankfort. The former has made a splendid record, and his friends claim that he is entitled to endorsement by re-election. Mackin Council will present the name of James Shelley for one of the Supreme Delegates, and claims to now have votes enough pledged to insure his election. The friends of John J. Sullivan, and they are in every council of the jurisdiction, have determined to send him as the other. With two such experienced representatives luster would be shed on our Grand Council and the order. The other offices, of which there are quite a number, will be equitably distributed and all councils recognized.

Two pleasing features of the convention will be the trolley ride and outing at the Country Club and the banquet at the Capital Hotel, at which the most brilliant men in the order will respond to the toasts. From all reports a great time is in store for those who attend this convention.

BECOMING EXCITING.

Membership Contest Bringing Results to Mackin Council.

Mackin Council had a big meeting Tuesday night, and the filing of nine more applications by Capt. Ben Reid and his men created much enthusiasm and greatly excited the team led by James Mullarkey. If the present rate is kept up Mackin will soon be far in the lead of all other councils, and this seems to be the object of the present movement. Besides the five names previously presented were balloted for with favorable results. Officer R. W. Galway was reported able to return to his duties, and now there is no one on the sick list. A letter thanking the council for the scholarship awarded the parochial school at Nolin was received from the pastor of the Sacred Heart church at that place.

The council received an invitation to the Shaughnessy-Wolf wedding next Wednesday, which was accepted and the Secretary instructed to send a letter to the worthy couple wishing them a long life of happiness and success. Magistrate Patrick Sullivan delivered the address of the evening, "What's In a Name?" being his subject. Beginning with St. Patrick he spoke entertainingly till he came to the time of Father

EDWIN DAWSON.
Secretary of the Grand Council.

Mackin, for whom the council was named, and in eloquent words urged that the members see to it that a suitable monument be placed over his grave. Thomas Bachman spoke on Father Ryan, the poet priest, and the questions were answered by B. Reichenwald and Charles Cate. Because of the Grand Council next week the intellectual exercises will be omitted Tuesday night.

Mackin Council voted to have a band for the trip to Frankfort tomorrow, and all who can are requested to meet at the club house before 8 o'clock, from where they will proceed to the train at First and Water streets.

FRENCH BISHOPS

Approve Protest Against the Usurpation of Church Property.

The Osservatore Romano Tuesday published the French Bishops' reply, unanimously and entirely approving the terms of the Pope's encyclical against the separation of Church and State. The document begins with an expression of the Bishops' satisfaction relative to the first assembly of the entire French episcopate for a century, marking the historic hour which returns to the Church of France one of its dearest liberties. The Bishops express their gratitude for the opportunity afforded to show their unanimous patriotism, faith and submission to the Pope's will, and recognize the Papal encyclical as a monument of divine and human wisdom, which, after judging, condemns the separation law. The Bishops declare themselves happy that they have been judged worthy to suffer for the faith, and add: "With you, Holy Father, we condemn the false principles of the separation of Church and State. Without previous consultation with the head of the Church, you have defended the sacred rights of ecclesiastical property. We await the future with eyes turned toward Rome."

The reply concludes with the hope that the Pope will safeguard the rights of France as the eldest daughter of the Church, and also the privileges of the protectorate of the Catholics in the Orient.

FIFTY YEARS.

Festivities That Will Mark Three Golden Jubilees at St. John's.

Record of Very Rev. L. Bax Without Parallel in America.

For Half a Century Has He Served Faithfully and Well.

THE PROGRAMME FOR EACH DAY

Tomorrow morning at St. John's church, Clay and Walnut streets, there will be inaugurated a golden jubilee celebration without parallel in this country that will continue for three days. For fifty long years has the venerable and Very Rev. Lawrence Bax faithfully and well served the people of that congregation, baptizing their children and their children's children, administering to them their first holy communion, later joining them in the holy bonds of wedlock, and finally administering the last sacrament and preparing them for the journey into eternity.

But few recognize the significance of a blessed pastorate of fifty years of one church by one and the same pastor. Father Deppen has well said that, "Fifty years of unbroken pastorate is history, pastoral history, embracing of one-half the history of an historical diocese, and the venerable pastor is a part, and no small part, of that history." For weeks past the ladies of the Altar Society and the Sodality of the Blessed Virgin and the men of the St. Vincent de Paul Society have been busy with preparations for the festivities of the three jubilee celebrations with which this event will be observed. The programme is an elaborate one and nothing has been left undone that would add to its splendor in exhibiting the love and veneration in which the good pastor is held by both clergy and laity. Not the least imposing feature will be the presence of the Uniform Rank of the Knights of St. John in their full uniforms, under the direction of Major Gen. Kadeski, who comes to Louisville for this special occasion.

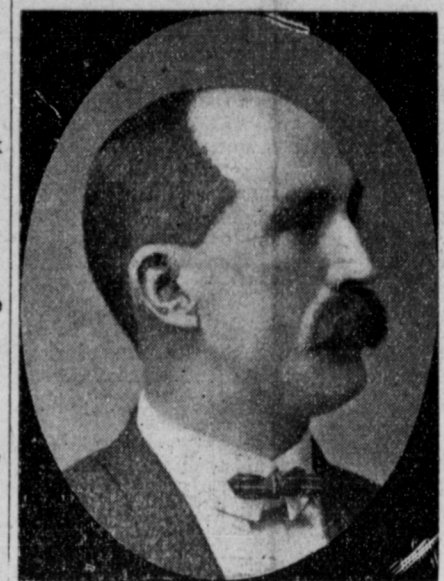

The jubilee will begin tomorrow morning, when it is expected Bishop McCloskey will assist and many other prelates will be present. The solemn mass at 10 o'clock, in thanksgiving for blessings received during the fifty years' pastorate of the beloved jubilarian, will be celebrated by him. One hundred children, together with the members of the St. Vincent de Paul Society from the different conferences and the Uniformed Knights will form an escort to the Right Reverend Bishop and the officiating and visiting clergy. The sermon will be preached by the eloquent Father Vincent Tröst, O. F. M., of St. Boniface church, a grand Gregorian musical programme has been specially arranged for this service, but the Kyrie, Gloria, Credo and Agnus Dei will be Mercedarians. At the end of the mass the Te Deum will be intoned and taken up by the choir and congregation, the procession in the meanwhile returning to the rectory in the order that it came. There will be no tickets of admission, and after pewholders are seated the public will be admitted.

Monday morning the solemn mass will be sung in thanksgiving for the blessings bestowed by God on the societies connected with St. John's for fifty years and those organized later—all of which were instituted and have been under his spiritual guidance. Rev. Thomas J. Jenks, years ago assistant priest at St. John's, but now stationed at New Hope, will preach the thanksgiving sermon at this mass.

On Tuesday there will be a thanksgiving mass for all those who in the past fifty years were baptized, instructed and married by Father Bax. The Rev. John T. Hill, of the Cathedral, Secretary to Bishop McCloskey, and a child of the congregation and baptized and instructed by the pastor, will preach the sermon on this occasion. The reverend clergy of the diocese, who will be the special guests of Father Bax on Tuesday, will be met at the rectory at 9 o'clock, and accompanied by an escort as on Sunday will enter the church and occupy front seats in the center aisle.

Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock there will be celebrated a solemn high mass of requiem for all the members of the congregation who departed this life during the pastorate of the reverend jubilarian.

There have been many celebrations during the past half century of St. John's parish, from which many others have been molded, but none that in anywise approach the present one, and the interest felt in its observance is not confined to the city or State, but extends throughout the country. The Kentucky Irish American joins in the hope that Father Bax may be long spared to them.

Brilliant Scenes Attend the Large Convention in Providence.

The thirty-sixth annual convention of the Catholic Total Abstinence Union, which was held last week, was a memorable event in the history of Providence. The local union had worked earnestly to arouse the citizens, and especially the Catholics, to a realization of the great honor that was about to be conferred upon them by the coming of the delegates from all parts of the Union, and the people warmly responded to the efforts of the local union. Even where commendation was not to be expected the delegates experienced an unlooked for consideration and kindness that gave proof to the any thing else of the salutary influence their presence had created in Providence. The stores of the city were gayly decorated to welcome the delegates, and the interest manifested in their work by large numbers who reviewed the street processions and who attended the social rally held in Infantry Hall on Thursday evening all contributed to make the stay of the delegates in Providence enjoyable for themselves and fruitful for the cause of total abstinence.

National Secretary Logue reported that the national body represented 961 local societies throughout the breadth of the country, with a membership of over 100,000.

The following national officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Right Rev. J. F. Regis Canavin, Pittsburg; First Vice President, Rev. J. J. Moran, Wilkesbarre; Second Vice President, Rev. Austin R. O'Toole, Providence; Third Vice President, Miss Leonora Lake, St. Louis; Treasurer, Rev. J. T. Coffey, St. Louis; Secretary, J. Washington Logue, Philadelphia.

CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

Annual Celebration Adds Nice Sum to Treasury Fund.

The regular monthly meeting of the Central Committee of the Catholic Knights of America was held Friday night at St. Mary's Hall with a very fair attendance of members. President McGinn presided and all were in their chairs. Only business of a routine nature was transacted, the greater part of the time being consumed in receiving returns from the annual celebration. Chairman Higgins reported all bills paid, and the amount turned over to Charles Falk will swell the treasury to large proportions. As several branches remain to be heard from a final statement will not be made till the next meeting.

No man ever shares the self-esteem of his neighbor.

BIG ONE.

Preparing For the Hibernian Convention to Be Held at Paris.

Will Comprise Greatest Number of Delegates Assembled in Years.

The Ladies' Auxiliary Will Also Play an Important Part.

SPECIAL TRAIN FROM THIS CITY

The coming State convention of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, which will hold its opening session at

WILLIAM P. McDONOGH.
Will Represent Satoll Council.

Paris on Monday, September 2, promises to be the largest and most important since the foundation of this grand old Irish Catholic society in Kentucky thirty years ago. From Louisville, Covington, Newport and Ashland it is intended to run special trains, and there will be such a gathering in the pretty Bourbon county metropolis as was never witnessed before.

It will be gratifying to the entire membership to learn that the State Chaplain, the Right Rev. Camillus P. Maes, Bishop of Covington, will be present at the convention and will also be the celebrant of the solemn high mass on the opening day. From President Grace it is learned that the citizens of Paris are making elaborate preparations for the entertainment of the delegates and visitors. They will be met at Lexington by a special train of interurban cars and taken through the beautiful Bluegrass country to Paris, where the convention will be in session for at least two days. There will be no desire to rush the business, and all resolutions introduced will be given careful consideration. It is the intention of the present State officers to submit recommendations that will increase the membership in those cities where divisions now exist and also to institute new ones throughout the State. In addition to the reception and entertainment being arranged for the event there will be a banquet for the delegates and visitors upon the adjournment of the convention.

For the convenience of those from Louisville a committee of the County Board will arrange for a special coach over the Chesapeake & Ohio railroad at greatly reduced fare. The train will leave the Seventh-street depot at 8:10 Sunday morning, giving those who wish an opportunity to spend a day in Lexington. It is expected that large numbers will take advantage of this opportunity.

State President Thomas Keenan was seen this week and said the Ancient Order of Hibernians stands today as the morning star of our Irish Catholic hopes and filial affection, standing for the fatherhood of God and brotherhood of man. It is the largest society in the world of one nationality and religion, and in this country numbers over 200,000. "There has," he said, "been a substantial increase in our membership in Kentucky, though not all that the State officers had hoped for. When I came into office there was not an auxiliary in the State, but now there are four flourishing branches, one here in Louisville, at Covington, Paris, Ashland and one being organized at Newport. The net gain of our local divisions has been small, but those of the Covington and Newport bodies have been almost phenomenal. Kentucky has now eight divisions, all strong and well financed, and four ladies' auxiliaries, and the prospects for the future of our organization were never brighter. More work would have been done but for the fact that it was impossible for the State officers, who are stationed so far apart, to leave their homes and business at the same time, and for this reason I will recommend that hereafter the State President and State Secretary be located in the same county. Our convention promises to be more largely attended than for many years past, and the State Board has about completed its programme, which will prove one of more than ordinary interest."

As at our last convention, held at Covington, we will have with us our State Chaplain, the Right Rev. Bishop Maes, who will address the delegates and visitors on the first day.

When asked if he would be a candidate for re-election, President Keenan answered: "No, that would be impossible, as the law now prohibits any State officer serving more than two terms in succession. However, I would not have been a candidate, being the only President ever honored with two terms, and I feel that is honor enough for any one. For my fellow officers I have the highest regard and appreciate their earnest work in behalf of the order."

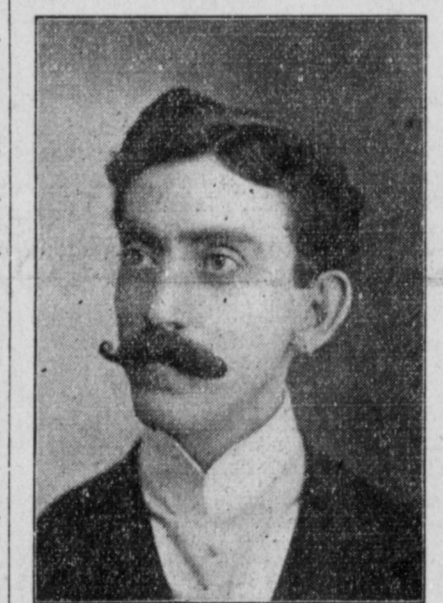

Much interest is being manifested in the election of officers that will take place, but who the candidates will be is not yet known. The sentiment would indicate that men will be chosen because of their fitness and ability, and if this proves true a great awakening in Kentucky Hibernianism is sure to follow.

Quite a number of prominent members in this city have been invited to respond to toasts and sing at the banquet, and some of them are now preparing themselves for the event.

NOVEL FEATURES

Will Be Introduced at St. Paul's Picnic at Phoenix Hill.

The congregation of St. Paul's Roman Catholic church will hold their annual picnic at Phoenix Hill, Park on Monday, September 3, (Labor day), afternoon and evening, and are trying if possible to make it a bigger success than the ones held in previous years. It is a notable fact that Father York's picnic, as it is popularly called, has always been a synonym for big crowds; in fact he has the record for holding the largest church picnic of recent years. The committee in charge have arranged several special features for the picnic which are innovations in their line, some among them being a prize drill between the Uniform Rank, C. K. of A., and the Knights of St. John; a bowling contest between the Kentucky Irish American team, champions of the Falls City League, and Trinity Council team, champions of the Y. M. I. League; also a baby show from 3 to 4 o'clock in the afternoon, when ten dollars in gold will be given to the handsomest boy baby between the ages of one and three years, and ten dollars in gold to the handsomest girl baby of the same age.

The ladies of the congregation have arranged to serve a grand banquet in the afternoon and evening at twenty-five cents per plate. Purchasers of admission tickets will be entitled to a chance in the drawing of twenty handsome prizes, the first prize being a full blooded Kentucky steed, runabout and harness complete. The lucky winner of this prize can surely be congratulated, as this is one of the handsomest prizes ever offered at an affair of this kind. Tickets of admission to the park are twenty-five cents, and children under twelve years of age accompanied by parents will be admitted free.

GOOD MEETING.

Auxiliary Delegates and Alternates to Hibernian Convention.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Ancient Order of Hibernians met Wednesday evening at their hall in the Hopkins' Theater building, with President Miss Mary Sheridan in the chair and Miss Ella O'Connell acting as Recording Secretary in the absence of Mrs. Rose Kelly, who is ill at St. Mary and Elizabeth Hospital. After several routine matters had been disposed of the election of delegates and alternates to the Ancient Order Hibernian convention at Paris next month took place, with the following result:

Miss Mary Sheridan, Miss Elizabeth King, Mrs. Rose Kelly, Miss Dora McEnty and Miss Rose Sweney were chosen as delegates, and Mrs. Mary Cline, Miss Bertha King, Mrs. Daniel Dougherty, Mrs. Williams M. Higgins and Miss Margaret Callahan were elected alternates.

State President Miss Mary Corcoran and County President Miss Ella O'Connell and also a great many of the auxiliary members will accompany the delegation, as a number of social features have been arranged for the benefit of the ladies. The sick committee reported Miss Mamie Curran, Miss Emma Pryor, Mrs. M. J. Heffernan and Mrs. Rose Kelly on the sick list and urged auxiliary members to visit them.

ENCYCLICAL

Issued by Holy Father Urges Organization by French Bishops.

They Will Thereby Prevent Separation of Church and State.

Deferred Action Through Charitable Feeling For French Nation.

ATROCIOUS WAR AGAINST RELIGION

The text of the Pope's long expected encyclical to the Archbishops and Bishops of France concerning their future conduct in view of the enactment of the laws providing for the separation of Church and State appeared in the Osservatore Romano Tuesday. It refers to the previous encyclical condemning the general principles of the law and says the time has arrived to indicate what should be done to defend and serve religion in France.

CHARLES S. RAIDY.
Delegate From Mackin Council.

"We deferred," the encyclical continues, "our decision owing to the importance of this grave question and particularly through a charitable feeling for the great services your nation has rendered the Church. Having heretofore condemned this iniquitous law, we examined with the greatest care its articles to see if they permitted the organization of religious life in France without jeopardizing the sacred principles of the church."

After approving the recommendations of the French hierarchy disapproving of the law, the encyclical says: "Therefore, concerning cultural associations such as the law prescribes, we decree absolutely that they can not be formed without a violation of the sacred rights which are the life itself of the church. Putting therefore aside these associations which our conscience forbids us to approve it is opportune to examine if some other kind of organization, both legal and canonical, can avert the threatened dangers to the church."

"But as this hope fails us," he continues, "and the law remains as it is, we declare it is not permissible to try this other kind of association so long as they do not establish in the most legal and the most positive way that the divine constitution of the church, the immutable rights of the Roman Pontiff and the Bishops, and their authority over the temporal affairs of the church, particularly the sacred edifices, will be irrevocably protected by such associations. We can not wish otherwise without betraying our sacred charge and producing the ruin of the church in France."

The document urges the Bishops to adopt all means within the law to organize their forces, assuring them of the Papal co-operation and support. "It is not difficult," the encyclical says, "to foresee the recommendations which the enemies of the church will make against our present decree. They will seek to persuade the people that we do not seek the salvation of the church, but that the form of the republic in France is odious to us. We denounce with indignation such insinuations as false. The makers of these laws have not fought separation but oppression. While affirming their desire for peace they have made atrocious war against religion. They hurl a brand of the most violent discord, thus arraying one citizen against another to the great detriment of public welfare. We have submitted patiently to injustice through love of the French nation, and are finally asked to overstep the last limits of our apostolic duty, and we declare our inability to overstep them. Let the responsibility rest with those whose hatred has gone to such extremes."

The Pope counsels against sedition or violent action and says that violence will give better results than violence. United action he says can be learned from those who have imposed the stigma of this crime upon the nation. In the encyclical says: "In hard trial for France if the defending the supreme of the country the salvation of the church is far from despicable contrary it is to be held dignity will be raised prosperous height."

Y. M. I.

There are many societies of Catholics today, but none more worthy of commendation than the Young Men's Institute. This organization has been a power for good among the young wherever instituted, of which the Kentucky jurisdiction furnishes ample evidence. Religious and patriotic, developing mind and body and all that is best in young manhood, its work has just begun. The annual convention of the Grand Council at Frankfort next week will be an important one and care should be taken in its deliberations. The Kentucky Irish American knows the caliber of the men who will compose that body, and has no hesitancy in congratulating the jurisdiction on the outcome of this session of the Grand Council.

THE CITY HOSPITAL.

The City Hospital investigation is over. Like all public investigations it disclosed a good many things that the public should know, and at the same time proved that many of the charges were untrue. On the whole the result was favorable to the management of Superintendent Vogt. While it was shown that a condition of affairs existed there which should not, at the same time no discredit can reasonably be cast upon the Superintendent, for it is evident he did the best he could under the circumstances. There may be need for a new hospital, or the old properly repaired and renovated may be made modern and meet the requirements. These are questions of public interest that require attention.

But without reflecting in any way whatsoever on the present management or those in authority who opposed the Superintendent, it is our candid opinion that the City Hospital management should be taken entirely out of politics. Speaking of politics, we believe that to be the most important phase of the hospital question at this time. The management and control of a public institution like this should be removed as far as possible from the influence of politics and the politicians. As long as a political party has the appointment of the Superintendent and a control over the hospital we will not have the efficient management and good results that would be obtained from a management free from such influences. Compare the management of this institution to that of the various infirmaries in Louisville and notice the difference. There should be a non-political board of some kind, composed of physicians and business men, to control the affairs of that institution. They should all be taxpayers and have the power to appoint the Superintendent and remove him for cause. They should also have general supervision over all the affairs of the institution.

These members should be elected by the General Council for a term. Other public hospitals in the country, we are informed, are managed by such boards successfully. The citizens favor such a method of management. Under such regulations better results would be obtained and there would not be those periodical rumors and charges of scandal and corruption.

THE LID.

Mayor Barth has withdrawn the "privilege" granted by him to certain parties to raise the "lid" on Sunday. The Board of Safety has reiterated its order that hotels must not sell drinks with meals, and the Mayor will not further interfere. While the masses of the people seem opposed to this "lid" business, they want the law applied to all alike. There should be no favoritism or discrimination.

SOCIALIST FOR CONGRESS.

The Socialists of Louisville, thank God there are not many of them, have nominated Charles Dobbs as their candidate for this district. This is the same Dobbs whose sentiments expressed in an address before the American Federation of Labor here some years ago were received with feelings of resentment and disgust. Friends of labor should remember that in this age the great peril of the workingman is the scoundrel. Incessantly going about in every ear words that are not his own, and so he tempted the ignorant and disaster followed. The same will be repeated. Working people give this anti-American movement, any encouragement.

Another exhibition of the love the English have for the United States was given Tuesday night at Bayonne, N. J. During a performance in a theater in that city a Britisher named James Pierre hissed the Stars and Stripes as they were waved by one of the performers at the conclusion of a song, almost causing a riot. In the Police Court the following day Pierre was fined $25 by the Judge, who was a member of the audience and witnessed his disreputable act. This is an incident that is given little space in the columns of our pro-English press.

Gov. Higgins, the stalwart young Republican Governor of New York, defeated Boss Odell at the meeting of the Republican State Committee last Wednesday, when the friends of the former were victorious in selecting Saratoga for their State convention on September 15, the same day selected by the Democrats for their State convention, which will be held at Buffalo.

Judge Galloway has declared unconstitutional the act of the Legislature, approved March 23, 1906, which redistricts the legislative districts of the State. This decision affects Louisville, and the result of the appeal that will be taken to the Court of Appeals will be awaited with no little interest.

RISEN FROM ASHES.

Academy of St. Catherine of Now Sienna Ready For Pupils.

The Kentucky Irish American takes pleasure in announcing that the new St. Catherine's Academy, near Springfield, is now ready to receive pupils. It will be remembered that on the night of January 2, 1904, the buildings were devoured by flames, after an existence of more than eighty years. Nothing daunted, the management set to work and today their doors are again open. The buildings, constructed of brick with stone trimmings, occupy one of the highest points in Washington county, and afford a plentiful supply of sunshine, plenty of air and plenty of light. Their equipment is everything a modern building should have—improved plumbing, steam heat, electric light, protection against fire, etc. For promoting health, comfort, safety and convenience no school in the country can surpass the new St. Catherine's. Any information will be cheerfully furnished those who address the Mother Superior.

BON AMI DAY

At Fontaine Ferry Park Next Thursday Afternoon and Night.

Bon Ami Day at Fontaine Ferry Park, next Thursday, August 23, gives promise of bringing the banner crowd of the season at this popular pleasure resort, as the committee in charge report a large sale of tickets. Special attractions for that day have been arranged for that will please both old and young. Particular attention has been paid to the dancing program and all lovers of the terpsichorean art will be specially looked after by the committee.

On account of special inducements offered by the park management for the outside sale of tickets the committee particularly requests that intending purchasers of tickets secure them from the members, who are W. P. McDonough, John J. Barry, Albert F. Martin, Chas. S. Raidy, Louis J. Kieffer and George Francis. The dance committee is composed of Frank P. Burke, John X. Kimberger, D. G. Gleason, Albert D. Gregg, John J. Grogan and Will Daly.

READY FOR DEBATE.

After an interesting preliminary trial Mackin Council has selected Messrs. Robert T. Burke, the rising young attorney, and Charles Cate, of the Louisville & Nashville railroad, as its representatives in the debate to be held with Sarto Council, of Owensboro, on Sunday afternoon, September 16. The subject, "Is the World Growing Morally Worse?" gives latitude for a wide range of thought and will doubtless prove instructive. The debate will be held in Mackin's large hall, but whether the public can be admitted remains as yet undecided.

MISS ANNA M'GILL

Run Over by Cab in Paris While Coming From Church.

Telegrams received here Wednesday from Paris brought the news that Miss Anna McGill, the well known Fourth street milliner, had been run down by a cab on one of the boulevards of Paris last Sunday morning, and for a time her friends were much alarmed. The first report was that she was seriously injured, but a later telegram stated that she was not badly hurt and would be sufficiently recovered to sail for home next Wednesday.

The accident happened Sunday morning while Miss McGill and Mrs. Kettig, of this city, and several other friends were returning from church. The party was crossing one of the chief boulevards when a recklessly driven cab approached, and Miss McGill, who was unable to get out of the way, was struck by the horse and knocked down, the wheels of the cab passing over her body. The unfortunate lady had been in Paris but a few days, but luckily the business of her trip had been attended to during that time.

OPENS NEXT MONTH.

The officers for the season 1906-07 are John Barry, President; Arthur Schuff, Vice President; Dennis J. Gleason, Secretary; J. G. Minnegerode, Treasurer.

POPE'S ORDER.

Henceforth there will be no solos in the Catholic churches of this diocese, choral music and the Gregorian chant being substituted. This order has been promulgated by the Right Rev. Bishop McCloskey, who decrees that catechism must be taught for one hour every Sunday afternoon. This is in accord with the orders of the Holy Father, issued some time ago.

CLEANING PORCELAIN.

Common house ammonia is much better for cleaning porcelain than sand soap. Many of the stains on porcelain tubs, washbasins and sinks are caused by allowing them to be injured. When new porcelain is smooth and is rubbed with sand soap it becomes rough, and it is quite impossible to remove the discoloration.

HINTS ON STYLE.

One of the prettiest fashions for the fall is the black Malinette box. Very elaborate buttons appear on the newest wraps and woolen gowns. That the round length rather than the trained skirt will prevail for fall cannot be doubted.

All the trimming fashions of the season show a pronounced movement toward combinations.

Blouse jackets will high girdles are to be very stylish for suits of broadcloth, cheviot, velveteen, etc.

The sort of check most favored for tailor suits is of small dimensions and generally of the regular order.

Large hats will be fashionable this fall. They are to be of felt and trimmed with plumes or fancy feathers.

A great deal of black and white is to be worn this fall. In the silks new black and white stripes and checks are strongly represented.

The revival of plaids is beginning to be felt, and there will unquestionably be quite a showing of novelty and tartan plaids in the fall waists.

Among all the novel and natty jackets and coats the Eton seems to reign supreme. It is a style which can be worn by most all and is exceedingly becoming.

A good velvet season is expected in coat suits as well as costumes. Tailor-made models, from the smart hip length to the three-quarter lengths, will prevail.

The mannish skirt waist and Peter Pan waists with the attached collars that have been such a success this summer will be worn this autumn, made of silk and flannel.

There is quite a tendency to favor long crinette or raincoat for boys from twelve up. They are worn in place of a regular fall overcoat and are not restricted to wet weather wear.

A decided preference is expressed for all sorts of pleated styles in skirts. There are also thirteen and fourteen gored skirts as well as many skirts with the usual amount of gores.

For dressy costumes for fall wear the tailor made effects will take precedence. Bronzeds and fine worsteds of all kinds are favorably considered, black, blue and brown being the preferred tones.

HIBERNIANS.
 What They Have Been Doing
 the Past Week—General News Notes.

Daniel T. Kilroy was elected State President at the Delaware convention held at New Castle.

The State encampment of the Hibernian Rifles of Ohio, which begins next Sunday, will continue for the entire week.

Division 2 had an unusually good meeting last night. President Ford and his men always make it interesting for visitors.

Division 4 will hold an important meeting Wednesday night, when credentials will be distributed to the delegates to the State convention.

Members of Division 3 will be glad to know that their President has recovered from his recent illness and will be in his chair Monday night.

The Wisconsin State convention will be held in Milwaukee during the week of the State fair. There will be sixty delegates and the State officers.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of Minneapolis held no meeting this week out of respect to the Grand Army of the Republic, which was holding its national encampment there.

Division 1 of St. Paul is collecting money for the furnishings of its new hall at Seventh and Franklin streets, that will cost $5,000, and be one of the largest and finest in the West.

Hibernians from all over Ohio will assemble at Akron for their State convention, which opens next Tuesday and will continue three days.
 On the first day there will be a prize drill for the Hibernian Knights of the State and Wednesday night the convention will close with a banquet.

There will be 780 delegates in the Pennsylvania State convention, which opens at Altoona next Tuesday. The ante-convention mass will be celebrated in St. John's Pro-Cathedral by the Rev. Morgan M.
 Sheedy, and immediately thereafter all will go to the opera house, where the convention will open with a public meeting.

The remainder of the week will be delivered by Hon. S. H.
 Walker, Mayor of Altoona, and the response will be delivered by Michael J. Ryan, of Philadelphia. Right Rev.
 Eugene A. Garvey, Bishop of Altoona, will make an address, as will also Rev. Morgan M. Sheedy and perhaps others. The remainder of the week will be taken up with the sessions of the order. The State convention of the Ladies' Auxiliary will meet during the same week.

What promises to be the greatest gathering for some time will be the West Virginia State convention of the Ancient Order of Hibernians and Ladies' Auxiliary, the date having been set for August 27, 28 and 29, at Wheeling. The delegates will arrive on the morning of the 26th and the convention will convene early on the morning of the 27th. There will be high mass at the Cathedral, these services being in charge of the Right Rev. Bishop Donahue. From here they will go to the Carroll Club, where the convention will be held.
 All of Monday will be taken up with business sessions. Monday night the members will go to Wheeling Park, where the management has arranged special attractions for the delegates.
 Tuesday morning business will again be taken up at the several sessions.
 On Tuesday evening a banquet will be given at the Carroll Club. A street parade will be a feature of the convention held on the afternoon of the 28th. It is expected that arrangements will be made for an outing at the park on the third day.

FONTAINE FERRY PARK.
 A new vaudeville bill with the Petty Brothers as headliners will be introduced at the Fontaine Ferry Park theater next week. They are European artists who have appeared in this country only a few times.
 Lee Martine and Nelson, musical artists; Fernande-May Duo in musical novelties; Gill Brown, singing and dancing artist; and Mills and Morrison, comedians and acrobats, and the Kinedrome will fill a big bill. The skating rink has arranged a special music programme for the week and there will be a skating contest Friday evening. Harry Cook's Band will play all of next week, giving free concerts each afternoon and night.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS.

Late News That Will Interest
 Members Here and Elsewhere.

Recently a council was instituted in the small town of Massena, N. Y.

General Secretary Daniel Colwell has held his office since 1884. Though he is fifty-nine years old he is as active as he was twenty years ago.

Wheeling Council has begun preparations for the exemplification of the fourth degree, the first time in that city, on Thanksgiving day. There will be a class of about 175 for the work.

It is the intention of Buffalo Council to take up many of the propositions submitted to the recent Federation convention and place them before their members and the general public with a view to assisting in the improvement of existing conditions.

For the first time in the history of Hope Council of Providence the Knights are to allow ladies to participate in the festivities of their annual outing and field day, which occurs August 19 at the Warwick Club near that city. A shore luncheon will be served immediately upon the arrival of the party at the club grounds. This will be followed by a varied programme of field sports, including a baseball contest between teams representing the married and single men of the council. The principal feature of the outing, the genuine Rhode Island clambake, will be served at 5 o'clock.

 the Chicago stock yards and report dispassionately on their condition.

FOOLISH REPORT.

The report published in London Tuesday that Pope Pius X. is suffering from a dangerous form of gout, threatening paralysis of heart, is without foundation.
 That the health of the Pope is satisfactory is shown by the fact that on that day he received Mgr. Dennis O'Connell, rector of the Catholic University at Washington and that his medical attendant, Dr.
 Lapponi, was absent from Rome.

C. K. of A.—No society has done more to unite our Catholic men, and get them acquainted with one another, to elevate them morally, socially and in business, to wipe out the lines and prejudices of nationality, and by inculcating a spirit of brotherly love and unity, making them better men and better citizens than the Catholic Knights of America.

 Ballingarry have been forced to give up possession by the people, who took hold of O'Mahoney and reinstated him in his old homestead.

A short time ago the Lord Lieutenant opened the new marble works at Galway. His Excellency expressed pleasure at the development of industry and the revival of manufactures now taking place throughout Ireland.

While Vernon Cochrane was fishing in Sligo Bay a squall overturned his yacht and he was drowned, but three other persons on board were saved. Cochrane was eighty years of age and was a member of an old County Sligo family.

Thomas Brown, who has been in charge of the tramps at the Newry workhouse, and who is stated to have been seriously assaulted about three weeks ago by a tramp named Patrick O'Hara, died in the workhouse hospital. The assailant made his escape but was captured and is now in custody.

Martha Graham, of Tullyvin, but for two years an inmate of the Armagh district lunatic asylum, was found in the bathroom with her clothes on fire, and sustained burns that caused her death. The room was lighted by electricity and there were no matches about, which shrouds the affair in mystery.

On Sunday in beautiful weather the most successful total abstinence demonstration yet held in the county was held in Cavan town. It was estimated that there were nearly 10,000 people present, of whom nearly half were total abstainers.
 Cavan has reason to be proud of its work in the temperance cause. It was the first, and is yet the only county in Ireland to organize demonstrations of total abstinence, to show the strength of the cause, and induce others to join the temperance ranks. Sunday's meeting, coming so soon after the one in Ballinborough, was a splendid gathering.
 Thousands of young men and young women marched in procession wearing with pride the badges of their creed. It was a sight to shame tipplers and drunkards into a reformation of their evil habits, and fill the hearts of lovers of Ireland with hope for her future.

TRINITY COUNCIL

Holds Interesting Meeting
And Lecture Monday Evening.

Trinity Council met Monday evening with President Albert F. Martin in the chair, Eugene Ford acting as Recording Secretary and Edward Wulf as Financial Secretary. Henry Stoer and John J. Sullivan, the regular Secretaries, being absent. The entertainment committee reported that the popularity contest for the "Trip Around the World," which will be given at the club house during the week of September 23, had been launched and any other ladies desiring to enter should enroll their names with Joseph Hehmann and Frank Pilson. The prizes are well worth striving for, being a $500 Haines Bros. piano, a diamond pin and a ladies' tailor made suit. E. P.
Gilligan was reported as being able to work, having entirely recovered from the recent injury to his foot.

After all business had been transacted Edward Kelly delivered a lecture on "Vestments of the Church," which was well received by the council members. Mr. Kelly showed himself thoroughly familiar with his subject in explaining mass and why the different colors are worn. The next lecture will be delivered by Charles A. Weissenberger on Monday, August 27, and his subject will be "Pro Deo, Pro Patria." Trinity members will attend in large numbers on the frankfort excursion tomorrow and do some wire pulling for Albert F. Martin for Grand President.

SPRING BANK.

Will Have Stellar Attractions
For Its Old Fashioned Barbecue.

The Spring Bank Club, of which Col. John H. Whallen is President and composed of prominent gentlemen from all parts of the city, will have its annual old-fashioned barbecue at Spring Bank Park on Monday and Tuesday of next week.
Nothing given at any of the local parks has been as popular as the Spring Bank's barbecues, and as the proceeds are all for charity the attendance will be tremendous if the weather proves fair. The programme is an elaborate one, and includes music by Schilling's brass and string band, dancing in the large pavilion, a baby show with $25 in gold as the prize, and a euchre at which a number of valuable prizes will be awarded the winners. A feature will be the old country store, where there will be disposed of some ten thousand packages, containing all kinds of articles, ranging in value from a barrel of flour to a hat pin.
Fifty barrels of flour are among the packages in this store, all of which will go for ten cents each.

For all present dinner will be served from 2 o'clock in the afternoon till 10 o'clock at night. An elaborate fare will be offered, including burgoo and barbecued lamb, which will be prepared in full view of the people. At night on the river front there will be a grand display of fireworks, under supervision of the Palms Fireworks Company, who have generously donated $500 worth of pyrotechnics for this occasion.
West Walnut street cars run direct to the gates, and the Broadway line connects with a road that leads right into the park.

TOOK THE VEIL.

Last Wednesday, the Feast of the Assumption, four young ladies took the veil and habit of the Lorettine Sisterhood at the mother house in Marion county. Four others took their first vows the same day.

RETURNS TO INDIANA.

famous Catholic Academy at Oldenburg, Ind., who accompanied Sister Salina, of that institution, to St.
Anthony's Hospital, this city, returned to her home Monday. Sister Salina, who was seriously ill when she arrived here, is now out of danger and much improved.

VICTIM OF TYPHOID.

Profound sorrow prevailed throughout Jeffersonville when it became known Sunday afternoon that John Kennedy was dead, after a short illness of typhoid fever. Prominent in Catholic society circles and with a promising future, his loss will be keenly felt by all his associates. Deceased is survived by a wife and child. He was a brother of John and Richard Kennedy and Mrs.
Michael Kinney. The funeral took place from St. Augustine's church, Father O'Connell officiating at the solemn obsequies, which were so largely attended that the church was crowded.

KEPT THEM BUSY.

Reports and Doings at Meeting of Division 1 on Tuesday.

At an interesting meeting of Division 1, A. O. H., Tuesday night the members were kept quite busy with the reports made and other matters.
The application of John H. Coleman was received, and he will be elected at the next meeting. Secretary Peter Cusick's semi-annual statement showed Division 1 in an excellent financial condition. Notwithstanding that over $400 had been appropriated for sick benefits and charitable purposes during the past six months there yet remains $1,000 in the treasury. Reports were made of situations requested for members, who are hereafter requested to notify the Employment Committee when such have gone to work. A handsome appropriation was made to defray the expenses of the division delegates to the State convention at Paris next month.

Alderman George Butler was present and made a concise report of the proceedings of the National Board and convention held at Saratoga, in which he paid a nice compliment to Messrs. Burdick, Mulloy and Cusick, who represented Kentucky. He also spoke in high terms of National President Cummings and the new officers, predicting for them a progressive and successful administration.

State President Keenan was also present, and when called upon announced that an elaborate programme was being arranged by the Hibernians of Paris for the State convention in that city September 2.
As Bishop Maes will be present and be the celebrant of the mass with which the convention will open, he expressed the hope that every division in the State will be fully represented.

William M. Higgins stated that the social and literary sessions would be resumed at the meeting to be held September 25, when it was intended to hold a reception in honor of the ladies and the State officers.

CHARITY THAT COUNTS.

Work of the St. Vincent de Paul Society of Brooklyn, N. Y.

In these days when "charity" is a word much used and abused, the report of St. Vincent de Paul's society in Brooklyn is refreshing, for it shows a vast amount of work carried on quietly and with self-sacrifice for the benefit of those who are really in need. As in the case of Catholic institutions generally the funds came from the mites of the many. Of the total amount, exceeding $60,000, disbursed by the society last year, 75 per cent. came in the small coins left in the poor boxes of the churches. The contributions exceeding $5 received by the society were 15 per cent. of the total, and the other 10 per cent. was given by the members. The only expenses of administration in the relief work are for printing and postage and the salary of a probation officer assigned to the Children's Court.
Through the efforts of the society the Ozanam Home for Friendless Women is conducted as an extension of the Police Court labors of the organization. Another way in which the followers of St. Vincent de Paul add something to the happiness of the poor is by sending children of the tenements to Catholic homes and institutions in the country for mid-summer outings. All this is accomplished through the efforts of less than 900 members of the forty-five conferences in the Brooklyn council. Without any remuneration, except the rewards of conscience, they paid more than 30,000 visits to 2,548 families, numbering upward of 10,000 persons, in distress. The Brooklyn society is now in its fifty-second year and grows as the city gains in size.

GENERALLY OBSERVED.

At all the Catholic churches there was a large attendance at the masses on Wednesday, the Feast of the Assumption. Bishop McCloskey pontificated at the high mass at the Cathedral, assisted by many of the clergy of the city.
